Applications and Resignation:

New application was read for Omar Saxen-Clark, application still needed two signatures
No resignations at this time.

Chief Roger Bissen:

- Still need Direct Deposit forms for Shelby County Speedway and paperwork/ information from the new members – Chief Roger Bissen informed the members that he needed those from.
- When receiving a text message please read carefully and take serious. Respond to them if you can or cannot make it.
- There was damage to 34 and that will be getting fixed
- National Night Out is August 6th at 6:00pm at the Vets Center. Chief Roger Bissen talked to Jerry E. from PRI about getting the Grain Bin demo. Jerry E. said it will be here. Chad Kroger will get the stuff to be able to live stream. Chris Bylund will talk to FSC about getting the corn for the demo.
- Ida Grove had an active member pass away and they wanted some information for how to handle the funeral. Chief Roger Bissen was wondering if any of our members would be able to be present for Honor Guard.
- IFA emailed about the Hall of Flame at the State Fair, if you are interested in doing that, look at the schedule and sign up quick (spots fill up fast)
- 2nd Lieutenant Ryne has a house to burn at North 7th St
- Big Rig Rescue training is a one day class – got a bus for that training. Looking at September 28th – maybe?

1st Assistant Chief Tom Butler:

The gas detector from 32 was sent in for repairs

2nd Assistant Chief Bruce Blum:

- Slow down on your way to calls – there have been a couple of complaints.
- Who is all going to Fire Convention this year. (Richard Petersen said he is going, and Nate Pigsley is a might, will find out soon)

1st Captain Chad Butler:

- Do we want to reschedule the water rescue training – if so when?
- For the house burns do we want to get the High-pressure system – get members used to it.
- Pager problems – who having issues you need to let the equipment office know.

2nd Captain JR Campbell:

Nothing to Report

1st Lieutenant Jordon Sanders:

Nothing to Report

2nd Lieutenant Ryne Nelsen:

Nothing to Report – was not in attendance

3rd Lieutenant Russ Lacy:

- Epipens for both Junir and Adults will be in the bags – they expire next year.
- Oral Glucose has expired as well.
